LET GO WEDNESDAY
HEAVY DAMAGE
MANSFIELD HALL.

WERE NEARBY

No One Was In Room
Boiler Stood Or In Rooms
Which Were Wrecked.

A hot water boiler in the basement of Mansfield hall exploded Wednesday morning, causing damages estimated at $1,000 to the interior of the building.

The boiler exploded with terrific force, blowing out the base of the third floor, but fell back on the second floor. The floors of the second and third floors were blown out, and a section of the ceiling of the first floor, it is estimated, fell through the ceiling of the first floor.

The explosion scattered through the building and on the first floor, but no one was injured.

Two men were in an adjacent room to the one in which the boiler exploded and one or two in the hallway directly above the boiler when it let go, but they escaped through the ceiling of the first floor. The explosion was heard in the boiler room, which was used for storage purposes. It looked as if the boiler was probably of a capacity.

TEXAS MEN MUST CHOOSE BETWEEN WIVES AND SMITH

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—There was dire news for Texas husbands at the Republican National headquarters today. Mrs. J. C. Griswold, national committee woman for Texas, reported that many Texas men had told her their wives would divorce them if they voted for Governor Al Smith, the Democratic presidential nominee.

"There's great hope for Texas to go over for Hoover," she told Mrs. Alvin T. Hart, Republican national vice chairman. "Thanks to the fine Democratic women who value the welfare of their state and nation above party."

"You don't know how peppy our women are," Mrs. Griswold declared. "Our men have worn the brass collars of the Democratic party for a long time. But the women, thank fortune, have worn low-necked dresses and they aren't afraid. At any rate the men won't vote much for Smith. There's many a one who has told me his wife would divorce him if he did."

Radio Campaign To Be Conducted By Republicans

HERBERT HOOVER TO BROADCAST
NIGHTLY BEGINNING
LATE THIS MONTH.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5. (UP)—A $155,000 radio broadcasting campaign to be staged every night beginning in late September has been decided upon by Herbert Hoover and his campaign counselors.

For 45 nights before November 6, the Republican speakers' bureau will broadcast one-half hour each night on a national network, alternating on the National and Columbia broadcasting networks.

Never before has the radio been used so extensively by any advertising or business corporation, much less by a political campaign. Hoover himself intends to make only four big speeches, all to be broadcast.

The Hoover leaders believe their extensive plan is necessary since they believe that the Democrats intend to spend as much as half a million dollars for radio propaganda.

Hoover will make his four speeches—in Newark, N. J., Tennessee or North Carolina; New York City; and New England, probably at Boston. The only dates set definitely are Newark, Sept. 17 and New York City, Oct. 17.

A point near the Tennessee-North Carolina state line, possibly Knoxville or Asheville, probably will be selected for his speech in the so-called "border states."

NOTED SPEAKERS COMING

A number of noted speakers have been announced for the inauguration services of the new DePauw president, G. Bromley Osnam, to be held here October 12.

Among the speakers will be Gov. Ed. Jackson, Roy O. West, president of the Board of Trustees of DePauw university and Secretary of Interior Bishop Hughes, Bishop Blake and Dr. William Lowe Bryan, president of Indiana university.

The place for the inauguration services has not been definitely announced, but will probably be in the Bowman Memorial Gymnasium, if it is not held out-of-doors.

COUNTY LEVY 30 CENTS FOR COMING YEAR

COUNTY COUNCIL LEAVES 1928
TAX RATE UNCHANGED FOR NEXT YEAR.

RATE IS FIXED TUESDAY

Other Matters Considered by Board
During Meeting. Faulty Bridge
Building Is Discussed.

The County Council on Tuesday fixed the County Revenue tax levy at 30 cents for 1929. That figure is the same as for 1928. There is some doubt as to whether or not it will run the county through the year, but the council pruned the budget here and there, and it may come close to financing the county, but the chances are that it will not.

The assessed valuation of the county is about $31,000,000, and this levy will raise slightly less than $100,000 and officials estimated it will cost about $128,000 annually to run the county. According to these figures there will be a deficit before the end of the next calendar year.

The council pruned in some places and left similar expenses on other places. For instance, they cut off all the clerical expense for the county clerk and appropriated $750 for the auditor for the same work. They cut off all the gasoline expense for the county agent and allowed it for the health nurse.

The council refused to appropriate any sum for cow testing for next year as had been requested by the State Veterinarian. They appropriated the total sum of $10,000 for payment of a tax ferret next year.

There was some doubt as to the status of the county health nurse for another year, but the appropriation of $1,800 for this expense will assure the office being filled again.

The council also appropriated $5,000 for bridge repairs and the sum of $10,000 for new bridges.

There is something radically wrong with the bridge work in Putnam county. The council discussed at length on Tuesday the question of appropriating sums for repairs of bridges that are falling down. Why any bridge should be accepted and fall down within a few years is a mystery. One bridge was reported in such a condition that all the cement was crumbling. Others, built by the county superintendent of roads were said to have had the approaches or other leads washed entirely away, but the bridges were standing as solidly as ever. If one man can build a bridge to stand up, why not compel all the contractors to do likewise.

Members of the Kiwanis Club will hold their regular weekly luncheon on Thursday noon at 12:15 at the Christian church.

Thinning Ranks Of G. A. R. To Meet In Denver

ONLY 2,000 EXPECTED TO ATTEND
ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT
THIS MONTH.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 5. (UP)—The Grand Army of the Republic will march again in federal "blues" Sept. 19, climaxing its national encampment here Sept. 16 to 21.

Military drills, snam battles, and field events by both the old and the new armies of America will enable aged veterans to see again a portion of their old glory.

Preparations for receiving members of the Grand Army and delegates to its affiliated organizations have been underway for weeks here, under direction of Denver and Colorado branches of the organization.

Memorials for the veterans have been prepared by allied groups, and will be presented during the convention. A sculptured drinking fountain, gift of the Daughters of Union Veterans, likely will be unveiled in a Denver park during the meeting.

Besides the G. A. R., the National Woman's Relief Auxiliary, the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, the Daughters of Union Veterans, and the auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans.

NEW SYSTEM STARTED

With the installation of the new charging system at the Carnegie library the doors were again opened for business Wednesday morning. It had been closed on Monday and Tuesday for Labor Day and to give the librarian, Mrs. Fred V. Thomas, and her assistants time to perfect the new system now in effect.

All patrons of the city library will be required to re-register before taking out any more books, for with the new charging system, a registration list will be kept. According to the librarian there are approximately three thousand who have been registered in years before. Seventeen hundred were registered last year, and Mrs. Thomas expects to show a large increase over this number for the coming year.

This new system which has just been started has required a great deal of work as every book in the library had to be handled and the equipment pasted in it. This is the method that is used in all of the larger libraries and should prove very successful here.

TERRE HAUTE COUPLE HELD AS SUSPECTS

MUNCIE POLICE SEEK TO LINK
THEM WITH WOMAN'S MURDER.

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 5. (UP)—An attempt to definitely link Charles Beasley, 34, with the murder of Mrs. Myrtle Miller, 36, of Muncie, will be made today, according to police.

Beasley and Mrs. Irene Moyer, 29, both heavily shackled, were returned here from Terre Haute Wednesday night.

Several persons from Newcastle and Henry county who passed the spot where Mrs. Miller's body was found Saturday morning, were brought here today in an endeavor to identify Beasley as the man standing by the car seen near where the body was concealed.

An auto with a blood-soaked cushion found in the possession of Mrs. Moyer at Terre Haute has been identified as the one in which Mrs. Miller left her home here Friday afternoon, officers stated.

Mrs. Moyer has admitted ownership of the car but claims she loaned it to Homer Patterson Friday night. Patterson was captured at Mrs. Moyer's home in Terre Haute along with Beasley but made his escape.

Detectives believe the murder ended an argument started here Friday afternoon when Mrs. Miller refused to join Mrs. Moyer, Beasley and others in a shopping campaign over the weekend holidays.

REPUBLICANS ARE VICTORS IN WISCONSIN

REGULAR G. O. P. CANDIDATES
WIN MAJOR VICTORIES IN PRIMARY TUESDAY.

KOHLER IS LEADING BECK

Young Bob LaFollette Apparently Is Only Progressive Candidate To Win Out In Wisconsin.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 5. (UP)—Regular Republicans apparently won major victories in yesterday's primary. The regular Republican candidate for governor, Walter J. Kohler, had a commanding lead today over his progressive opponent, Joseph D. Beck.

Gov. Fred Zimmerman, running for re-election and a former member of the LaFollette faction, was left far in the rear. It was the first time in 33 years that a governor of Wisconsin failed to be elected for a second term.

Robert LaFollette, son of "Fighting Bob," was successful in his effort for the nomination to the United States Senate over George W. Mead, the "regular" Republican candidate.

Reports from various districts indicated that the regular Republicans scored one of their most impressive victories in Wisconsin in recent years. However, in many places the contests were close and the LaFollette forces took hope that later returns would change the result materially.

The gubernatorial contest overshadowed all others in the state. It was conceded that Young Bob would be elected to his first full senatorial term. He was chosen to fill the unexpired term of his father, who died in office.

BRAZIL, THEN TO NEW

(BULLETIN)

PARIS, Sept. 5. (UP)—Jean Assolant and Rene Lefevre have abandoned their flight to Dakar, Africa, and returned to Casablanca, Morocco authorities at Le Bourget field were informed by wireless today.

CASABLANCA, Morocco, Sept. 5. (UP)—The French monoplane Canary Bird continued its long distance flight today, starting from the sandy waste tract at 6 a. m. and proceeding to the south towards Dakar, Africa.

The skies were misty as Adjutant Jean Assolant and Sgt. Rene Lefevre and their stowaway flying companion, left Casablanca.

They had announced they would refuel at Dakar, fly to Rio de Janeiro and from there, attempt a one stop flight to New York.

Assolant and Lefevre, with their flying stowaway, Armande Lotti, son of a Paris hotel owner, started from Le Bourget field, Paris, yesterday morning.

Off Cape Finisterre, Spain, the Canary Bird plunged into strong headwinds, Assolant altered the course, turning the plane's nose toward Dakar.

As the Canary Bird roared close to Casablanca the pilots noticed a defect in the oil feed line.

They came down in a perfect landing after 10 hours and 20 minutes in the air and started immediately to overhaul the motor tubings.

Smith Has Hard Job Satisfying 'Wets' and 'Drys'

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT MUST CATER TO BOTH CLASSES.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 5. (UP)—Gov. Alfred E. Smith is giving careful thought to the treatment of the prohibition issue as he blocks out his campaign itinerary, to be announced within two days, realizing that this issue, which he projected so openly is going to play a vital part in both "dry" and "wet" sections.

He is faced with the problem of satisfying the dries as well as the wets, for he must carry some so-called dry states even if he should swing the dominant states in the wet east behind him.

Smith is expected to meet the accusation of raising "false hopes" among the wets by going into the Canadian system of control, which he advocates, explaining how it works emphasizing its benefits as he sees them as compared with American prohibition which he says does not prohibit, and citing figures in proof.

Smith will emphasize his intention, to enforce prohibition as long as it is a law, will attack enforcement by the Republican administration and beyond that, spring a surprise by suggesting some radical changes in enforcement machinery.

Smith is expected to devote practically the whole of next week to mapping out his first round of campaign speeches. He will speak extemporaneously, but that applies only to manner. He will make copious notes and be "ready to shoot" as he terms it.

PLANES ROAR WESTWARD IN BIG AIR RACE

NEW YORK TO SAN FRANCISCO
AERIAL CONTEST BEGAN
WEDNESDAY.

ONE PLANE FORCED DOWN

Roosevelt Field This Morning
Seeking Fame and Fortune.

(BULLETIN)

BETTIS FIELD, McKeesport, Pa., Sept. 5. (UP)—Spanning the treacherous Allegheny mountains between Harrisburg, Pa., and McKeesport, in an hour and twenty minutes, Earl Rowland of Wichita, Kas., in his Cessna monoplane, led the 37 starters in the National air derby from New York to Los Angeles to their half hour stop here today.

D. K. Davis, flying a Travelair, was officially reported down near Lebanon, Pa. Officials were unable to say whether Davis' plane had been wrecked. It was indicated that the pilot was unhurt.

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., Sept. 5. (UP)—Down the same runway that has launched many famous flights 37 planes roared today, starting the first leg of one of the greatest transcontinental races in the history of aviation.

The planes, representing nearly every type of small commercial aircraft, were powered with motors of 110 cubic-inch piston displacement or less. They comprise the class A group of the National air races from New York to Los Angeles.

At 6:43 a. m. (E.D.T.) Albert R. Jacobs, Philadelphia, in a Waco 10, powered with a special Fisher and Jacobs motor, sped down the runway to the cheers of several thousand spectators.

The other planes followed at one minute intervals, the last roaring away at 7:22, thirty nine minutes after Jacobs plane had faded into the west.

There was no graceful circling of the field by the pilots. The planes headed westward on the runway at the start and defied low hanging clouds in continuing toward New Jersey's coast line without the customary pause for bearings.

The crowd followed the official starter from one plane to another and cheered each as it lifted its tail and started after those who had gone before.

CRASH ON STATE
ROAD 43.

James Smith of south Greencastle was injured in an auto wreck on state road 43 early Wednesday morning when the light coupe in which he was riding was struck by a heavy coach driven by O. Garrett.

Both cars were damaged extensively and were pulled to the side of the road to allow traffic to pass. Deputy Sheriff Alva Bryan who was called to the scene stated that from the prints on the road from the tires Garrett's car could not have been going more than twenty five miles an hour.

Crowds Flock To Sydney For Catholic Rites

EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS DRAWS VISITORS FROM ALL PARTS OF WORLD.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Sept. 5. (UP)—In the presence of Catholic visitors from all parts of the world the 29th International Eucharistic Congress will be opened here tomorrow for a five-day program of ceremonies and deliberations.

It is the first time that Sydney has been host to such a gathering. Both transportation and housing have presented difficult problems to the committee in charge, but upon the arrival last week of Cardinal Cerretti, the Papal Legate, it was announced that arrangements to accommodate the thousands of pilgrims had been completed. The city is thronged with tourists.

A solemn triduum of preparation in all the Catholic churches has preceded the opening of the Congress which has for its theme, "Our Lady and the Blessed Eucharist." The theme was chosen by Pope Pius.

One of the most colorful events of the Congress is scheduled for Friday when a children's mass will be held at the Show Ground in Moore Park. A choir of 5,000 voices has been trained for the occasion.

The culmination of the Congress the procession of the Blessed Sacrament, is scheduled for Sunday. Solemn Pontifical High Masses will be celebrated simultaneously at Manly and St. Mary's. From St. Patrick's College, Manly, the Host will be carried up the Harbor to Circular Quay, with thousands of persons thronging the foreshores.

Meanwhile the bulk of the procession will muster in the Domain, adjacent to the Cathedral, and will march through the city's principal streets. At Circular Quay the procession will be joined and the whole will conclude at the Cathedral, solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament terminating the Congress.

Some Protestant bodies objected to the carrying of the Host on the harbor and in the streets but Premier Bavin, after conferring with the cabinet, decided not to act on the protests.

Turkish Women Adopt Hats Of Western Style

NEW HEADRESS COMES WITH NEW INDEPENDENCE—ENTER BUSINESS AND COURTS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 5. (UP)—The last mark by which Turkish women may be distinguished from European women has disappeared this summer.

A year ago only a small minority and then with hesitation had abandoned the distinctive national head-dress, but today the women who cling to the old-fashioned style are fast finding themselves conspicuous.

A strictly western felt or straw boche hat is now the order of the day on the streets of Constantinople. The head scarf or Russian coiffe, which wound round the hair and sometimes carried a light veil down to the tip of the nose, was the last stronghold of Orientalism to disappear. Today, except in outlying country districts, it is almost unknown.

Considerable admiration is felt among observers for the tactful and courteous manner in which the Angora government has enforced its edicts upon the women of Turkey. Although regulations affecting dress were ordered for the men, the government contented itself with politely asking the women to conform and singling out those who did for court favor. This is considered to be the work of Mustapha Kemal Pasha whose request that women should appear at official functions in western dress has set the pace for the whole land.

The new kinship in dress between Turkish women and their western sisters has extended itself to kinship in other things as well. Women in Turkey are entering business and the professions with a zest hitherto unheard of on the Bosphorus.

A woman's business club has been started in Constantinople with a membership of over 250. And the admission of women to the higher governmental posts has commenced with the appointment of two women graduates of law to the position of ushers in the courts of Angora with advisory capacities in the Ministry of Justice.

ADVERTISE IN THE BANNER

SEEKS RELIEF FOR PROPERTY OWNERS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 5. (UP)—Relief of property owners from the burden of taxation through an income tax which will strike those deriving incomes from intangible assets will be sought by John J. Brown, chairman of the State tax board at the next meeting of the legislature.

Although there is at present pending for action by the 1929 legislature an amendment to the constitution providing for an income tax, no clearly defined method of taxation has been decided upon.

Income tax measures were vetoed in the 1921 special election and in the general election of 1926.

But some property owners are adamant in their desire that some measure which will bring them relief be enacted.

Brown proposes to call a conference of representatives of Civic business, manufacturing and mercantile organizations and frame an income tax law which would equalize the burden.

"The farmer and the property owner is taxed on everything he possesses. It is tangible and easy to locate," the tax board man said.

"Yet many professional or business men who earn large incomes pay taxation only upon their household furniture and automobiles.

The property owner is therefore paying for the schooling of the children of the non-property owner, the cost of government and the police and fire protection which he is accorded.

"Such a system is palpably unfair. But if we could tax incomes then, the professional propertyless man could be held responsible.

"Naturally it would not be justice to tax the property owner twice, once upon the property he owns and again upon the income he derives from it.

"The solution to this is my plan whereby the man who pays taxation upon one piece of property is entitled to deduct his income from the gross amount of income received from the taxed property.

"Inasmuch as the income of the ordinary farmer is derived from his taxable property he would therefore not have to bear an additional tax for his income.

Mrs. Handy Entertains.

Mrs. W. T. Handy entertained the Missionary Society of the Christian Church Tuesday at 9 A. M., Mrs. Wm Herod and Mrs. Paul Heaney assisting.

The meeting was opened by song "Jesus Calls us o'er the tumult." As our headquarters has just been moved from St. Louis, Mo. to Indianapolis, Indiana, a circle of prayers was called for by the president Mrs. Warren T. Yount, for the helpers.

The Missionary Society is especially interested in the helpers because two of our church young ladies are assisting, Miss Imogene Mullins and Miss Imogene Pollom. Two new members were added to the membership.

After business the program was taken up. Scripture Lesson Eph. 4:1-16 was read by Mrs. Wm. Herod. Prayer by Mrs. Ira E. Cowling.

Mrs. Henry Phillips gave a description of the United Missionary Society in their new quarters, telling where to find each department. Discussion by Mrs. B. H. Bruner. Mrs. Pollom and Mrs. Cowling called attention to some of the good things found in the "World Call" our missionary magazine. The October meeting will be held at the church and everybody is invited to be our guests.

During the social hour a delightful luncheon was served.

MOVIES

AT THE VONCASTLE

Clara Bow's followers are to have the opportunity to enjoy their favorite motion picture star in a characteristically absolutely new to her in "Ladies Of The Mob," the Paramount picture coming to the Voncastle Theatre Thursday and Friday.

The dynamic red head plays the part of a girl of the underworld, a follower of "the mob", as a gang is called in the parlance of the underworld. Miss Bow's part is pure drama and she is declared to rise to new heights as the screen's most popular actress.

Richard Arlen, who scored such a triumph in "Wings", has the supporting lead opposite the star and the direction was in the hands of William Wellman, the youthful director who made the epic, "Wings", and "The Legion of the Condemned."

Bank robberies, gang fights, escapes through the night and dramatic climaxes between the little star and her gangster lover abound in "Ladies of the Mob."

CURTIS PLEDGES PROMPT FARM AID

Vice-Presidential Candidate Asks Non-Partisan Solution Under Hoover Leadership.

URGES JOINT COMMITTEE

Agricultural Situation, He Explains, Is of Deep Economic Importance to Citizens.

By U. S. SENATOR CHARLES CURTIS Republican Vice-Presidential Candidate.

Senator Curtis, in his Address of Acceptance, stressed the importance of prompt action on the question of farm aid. "The problem," he declared, "is of deep-seated economic importance to every citizen without regard to occupation or political party." He added the significant thought that "properly its solution is and always should be, non-partisan." For the leadership of such a non-partisan movement, involving the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars by the federal government, he declared that the leadership should be Hoover's—a man well worthy of the party's choice.

THE question of the proper relief for Agriculture is a trying and perplexing one. The problem is of deep-seated economic importance to every citizen without regard to his occupation or his political party.

Properly, its solution is and always should be, non-partisan. I am convinced that if a small joint committee of the House and Senate were appointed to study the problem and to find its proper solution, the necessary relief quickly could and would be afforded. The Committee could be assisted in its task by the advice and experience of the most capable experts on the subject whose services can be obtained.

It will be remembered that for years we had great trouble with the problem of settling our standard of value. The failure to settle the question had brought forth the Greenback Party, and later the Free Silver party. In 1899, that great and able statesman from Maine, Thomas B. Reed, a pointed a Committee of Eleven to draw a measure fixing the standard of value. In three weeks the committee had agreed upon a draft of a bill, and the Gold Standard Act of 1900 was the result. We have had no trouble with that question since then. If such a committee could settle so satisfactorily that great and vexing question, surely a similar committee of able legislators specifically charged with the task could agree upon an agricultural relief plan which would be equally satisfactory.

The solution will be found, and found promptly. Our party has pledged itself to the development and enactment of measures which will place the agricultural interests of the United States on a basis of economic equality with other industries, to insure its prosperity and success.

Philosophy of Farming

Encouragement of Agriculture always has been a Republican doctrine. It is a necessary part of our philosophy of government. Agriculture is the basic industry of the country and in the very nature of things will ever be so. Whatever is to the detriment of the farmer is, eventually, to the detriment of all our citizens; his welfare and prosperity are inevitably reflected in the welfare and prosperity of the whole nation.

Many plans for the encouragement of Agriculture have been proposed, and many have been given effect by our party. In the course of my political life every one which in my opinion promised an appreciable measure of sound relief has had my whole-hearted and active support.

Of recent years, two farm measures have been introduced by me in the Senate. Two Democratic members of the House joined in their preparation and introduction. The first was known as the Curtis-Aswell Bill. It created an Interstate Farm Marketing Association. Its purpose was to promote and stimulate the orderly flow of agricultural commodities in commerce; to remove burdens and constraints on such commodities in commerce; and to provide for the processing, preparing for market, handling, pooling, storing and marketing of agricultural commodities through co-operative marketing associations. The object of this measure was to place the marketing organizations under the ownership and control of the farmers themselves. The other measure was known as the Curtis-Crisp Bill. Its object was to enable the farmers to stabilize their markets against undue and excessive fluctuations; to preserve advantageous domestic markets; and to minimize speculation and waste in marketing.

Republican Record

Without the help which the Republican party has given, the agricultural situation would be infinitely worse than it is. The Copper-Volstead Act gave to the farmer the right to engage in collective buying and cooperative selling. In every possible way the Republican administration has endeavored to give practical and substantial effect to that right.

The Department of Agriculture fills an important place in the work of aiding and advising the farmer. It is our policy to widen each year as much as possible the scope of the Department's effectiveness. In the last year alone, $2,298,172.00 was spent in particularly valuable research work covering numerous classes of agricultural products, including cattle and swine. It is estimated that $4,157,887.00 will be required for this work for the coming year. Nearly $3,000,000.00 is expended annually by the Department of Agriculture in broadening agricultural markets.

The development of inland waterways, and water transportation in general, is of great value to the agricultural sections of the country. An extensive project in this regard is now being executed. The last Congress has provided for a large line to extend from St. Louis to Missouri River points, which when in full operation will bring decided relief in the difficulties and cost of transporting farm products. When the loss of the foreign market for our products was imminent because of insufficiency of ships in which to transport them, vessels of the United States Shipping Board were reconditioned and placed in service, thereby saving the market.

Tariff protection against foreign competition always has been given to farm products. The Fordney-McCumber Tariff Act carries higher rates of duty on agricultural products than any tariff law in the history of the nation. It has been found that certain of the duties are not high enough to give adequate protection to some of the products of the farm, and I believe it is the duty of Congress to provide rates high enough to protect such products against foreign competition. In addition, by this act, the duties have been lowered on most of the articles the farmers buy or they have been put upon the free list.

Appropriations have been made freely to aid the farmers in time of crop failures. The Federal Farm Loan System and the intermediate credit banks have made available to farmers, on loans at a low rate of interest, more than $2,500,000,000.00.

That effective help has been given to the farmer by the Republican party since it took charge on March 4, 1921, is indicated by the statement of the Washington office of the American Farm Bureau Federation. On page one of its Annual Report dated April 6, 1923, there appears the following:

"The passing of the 67th Congress into history marks an epoch in the undertaking of the American Farm Bureau's national legislative campaign. It is not too much to say that the twenty-six laws passed by that Congress, which were initiated and supported by us, are of far more importance to American agriculture than all the legislation relating to Agriculture passed since the adoption of our Constitution."

Though much has been done to ameliorate the farmers' situation, still more remains to be done, for there exists today a depression in Agriculture which in the best interests of all of the people, must be relieved.

Women in Government

Since the beginning of civilization, the right to vote, which is the right to have a decisive voice in the affairs of government, has been coveted and fought for. When obtained, it has been cherished by its possessors; hedged around with restrictions and qualifications; and extended to others only with reluctance. During the early period of our own government it was not every free man who was entitled to vote. Our present policy of universal suffrage is the growth of the years, and the recognition of woman's rights was particularly slow.

My personal stand on the question was at all times firmly and openly in favor of permitting women to vote. It is known and recognized that my active aid and support were instrumental to no small degree in procuring the action of the Senate on June 4, 1919, by which the 19th Amendment to the Constitution was proposed to the legislatures of the several states, and woman's right to the ballot became effective August 26, 1920.

The mere right to vote, not exercised, is useless. As a matter of duty, women as well as men should exercise that right. There are in the United States today between twenty-six and twenty-seven million women over the age of twenty-one, entitled to vote. As the years pass, these women are becoming increasingly alive to their opportunity to take a large and important part in the management and control of the country's affairs; to enforce recognition, change and improvement in their own particular problems and those which most interest them; and to become a distinct power in deciding all questions of vital concern to every citizen regardless of sex.

The youths said it took them little more than five days and six nights for the return trip of approximately 3,200 miles.

The new Buick is the new Style

More than handsome... more than luxurious... a wonderful new type of motor car beauty... a thrilling turning point in body design

It will be imitated, of course! The new, the fine and the beautiful always inspire emulation. But so great is the cost of building the magnificent new Fisher bodies for the Silver Anniversary Buick that imitation will be possible only to much costlier cars, and even these will find difficulty in following where Buick leads!

$1,500,000 has been expended in manufacturing the dies alone for the new Buick bodies; and the gracefully curving side panels which form one of their distinguishing characteristics represent the most expensive steel paneling work employed on any automobile in the world!

But it is not in the matchless grace and beauty of exterior design alone that the Silver Anniversary Buick eclipses other cars. The velvet moiré upholstery in the closed models—the hardware and fittings—the many appointments of luxury and convenience—are all of the richest quality; and the bracing of the bodies, which imparts strength and durability and freedom from squeaks and rattles, is the most efficient and effective known to motor car practice.

In dashing beauty—as in fleet, powerful performance—the world holds no equal for the Silver Anniversary Buick with Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher.

It is more than handsome, more than luxurious—it marks a thrilling turning point in body design. And the motoring public, buying in such tremendous volume as to force the great Buick factories to work day and night to supply the demand, is elevating it to the prominence of a vogue!
